

Fact Sheet

What is Bank for a Cause?

Bank for a Cause Checking is designed for individuals who want to direct contributions from Liberty Savings Bank to a 501(c)3 organization of their choice. When the client meets the criteria of the account, Liberty will donate 1% of the client's signature-based debit card purchases to the 501(c)3 charity of choice each month the criteria is met.*

Who can participate?

Any U.S. citizen or foreign national 18 years of age or older can open a Bank for a Cause Checking Account.

Why is the Bank doing this?

Liberty Savings Bank's involvement in the community is an important part of its company philosophy. Bank for a Cause is proof of a continued commitment to help its clients and communities. Liberty Savings Bank is empowering clients to tell us what organizations we should financially support.

How are contributions earned?

To participate in this program, clients open a Bank for a Cause Checking Account in conjunction with a free MasterCard® Debit Card. They must maintain enrollment in eStatements and have at least one direct deposit or three bill pays using Liberty's free Online Bill Pay service each month. When account holders make signature-based purchases using their MasterCard Debit Card, Liberty will donate 1% of the client's total signature-based purchases to the 501(c)3 organization of choice.

Where does a person enroll?

The easiest way to open a Bank for a Cause Checking is online at www.BankForACause.com. Liberty is able to offer this account across the United States, so you do not need to be close to a Financial Center.

Bank for a Cause Checking can also be opened at any Liberty Savings Bank Financial Center. For more information about Liberty Savings Bank or for a listing of our locations, visit www.libertysavingsbank.com or call FreedomLine® at 800.436.6300.

What organizations are eligible for the donation?

Any IRS-recognized 501(c)3 organization is eligible to receive a donation through Bank for a Cause. The organization must be in good standing.
